

Need a fun break in a long, cold, grey winter?

Come to the 2013

Coyote Life Festival

February 22-24 – Comins, MI

Celebrate Life, Love, and Laughter in the traditional “coyote spirit” with plenty of fun, food, games, drumming, singing, storytelling, sharing, and thanksgiving.

Register now for the full weekend experience!

Call 989-848-5757 or email Tim@HealingLifeways.org

Cost: Full weekend—a suggested minimum donation of $40 includes all food and supplies; bring simple food to share for Friday evening and Saturday lunch)

Anyone can drop in for the Saturday afternoon games and/or the chili supper!

Proceeds from this event will benefit Follow the Buffalo, Inc., a nonprofit volunteer organization that provides assistance to the Lakota people of the Pine Ridge Reservation. For more information, call 989-848-5757.

Need reasonable lodging for the weekend? Call us for information.

Find us on Facebook or visit: www.FollowtheBuffalo.org www.HealingLifeways.org

FRIDAY EVENING

Arrive 5-8pm or later
Meet, mix, and mingle with refreshments*

8-10: Drumming, singing, bonfire (weather permitting)

10pm: Canupa (pipe) prayer ceremony

SATURDAY MORNING

7:30: Pancakes, Tai Chi, morning games, crafts, workshops
Learn drumming, songs, and stories

12 noon: Lunch—Soup/sandwich/potluck

 As we honor the needs of everyone in our community, we ask that this event remain alcohol and drug free.*

Clinton Township Hall
Saturday 1:00 – 5:00pm
Afternoon games, crafts, and fun
Indoors/outdoors (weather permitting)

No charge to participate, but we will gratefully accept any contributions

Chili supper

with cornbread, cole slaw, pie

Clinton Township Hall
Saturday 5:00 – 8:00pm

Open to the public – $5 donation

Local vendor craft booths!
Silent auction! 50/50 raffle

Drumming, dancing, singing, sharing, contests, prizes and more!
Learn to celebrate life with gratitude!

Craft booth space available! Call for info.

Later on Saturday evening. . . .

more songs, prayers, dreams, stories, and discussion; perhaps a bonfire and some howling at the moon.

SUNDAY

8:30am: Breakfast

10am: Blessing the land; drumming, singing, canupa prayers

12 noon: Leftover lunch, cleanup the food and grounds, farewell

Sponsored by Healing Lifeways &
Follow the Buffalo, Inc.